Budget to be Resubmitted

At a meeting of the St. Albert town council it was decided to resubmit the budget to the Local Authorities Board. The L.A.B. turned down the inclusion of $40,000 for the arena fund.

Previously the council had passed a by-law to borrow $50,000 for additional costs of the arena. When the by-law was advertised sufficient petitions were received against it that it would become necessary to hold a vote to get it passed. Instead of this the council dropped the by-law on advice of their solicitor and instead included the needed $40,000 in the 1967-68 budget.

It was this inclusion that the L.A.B. would not pass. Council will now resubmit their original budget to the board with a copy of the town solicitor's letter stating that in his opinion the dropping of the first by-law and the inclusion of the figure in the budget was quite in order.

The renting of the St. Albert club house facilities to the Creative School Society for the purposes of kindergarten classes was approved in principle. A suitable and reasonable rental rate to be negotiated by the staff and subject to ratification of council.

A letter from the minister of telephones, Hon. A. O. Aalborg, had been received by council stating that the differential in telephone rates is standard and that the rate structure is not set by municipal boundaries but by population density.

Considerable correspondence had taken place between the council and the minister in an effort to bring the telephone rates in the southern extremities of St. Albert in line with those down town. Mr. Aalborg explained that it is impossible to serve sparsely settled areas with long distances between telephones for the same price as urban density centres.

A motion to further protest this matter was defeated as the minister's letter was considered final and factual.

Tot Lot Opened Aug. 15

The Kinsmen of St. Albert opened their second Tot Lot on Aug. 15. This one is on Gordon Crescent, the first, opened in late July was on Swallow Crescent.

This ambitious program of the Kinsmen Club has only just begun and within the next three years they hope to open a total of 10 lots situated on the 10 service areas in the town set aside for this purpose.

There are climbers, swings, sand boxes and benches for parents on the lots. Slides will be put in as soon as they can be purchased, it is hoped in about two weeks.

The Kinsmen have several fund raising projects and the monies for these Tot Lots comes from the proceeds of the following:

The annual rodeo, this year at last it brought profits; an annual peanut night; a Grey Cup pool and a fertilizer campaign selling from door-to-door to assist in a "Green-up for St. Albert". They also hold a Kincinema which is a series of movies held at the les of movies held at a school on Saturday afternoons.

On Sept. 5 the new officers of the club will be installed. Don Sinclair will be the new president, directors are: Bill Hite, Jim Irwin and Marsh Mormyluk. Secretary is Ken MacRae, treasurer, Tom White and registrar Ross Macfarlane.

National president Art Jones will be the installing officer.

Rev. Father Bokenfohr Ordained In St. Albert

St. Albert - On August 7, a unique ceremony was held in this district, when Father Frederick William Bokenfohr, OMI, 27 years of age, son of Mrs. Olga Bokenfohr and the late Frederick Bokenfohr of St. Albert was ordained to the priesthood by the imposition of hands of his uncle, Bishop John Bokenfohr, OMI, of Kimberly, South Africa.

Also present were Archbishop Anthony Jordan, OMI of Edmonton, who took part in the ordination, along with some 40 other priests. Nine of them participated in a Concelebrated Mass with Bishop Bokenfohr the main celebrant, and Father Bokenfohr taking part. All members of his family were present. After Mass, Father Bokenfohr, Blessed his Mother, and all the other members of his family who were present.

A banquet followed the ordination and Mass ceremony.

A reception was held in St. Albert Parish Hall in the afternoon.

Rev. Father Bokenfohr was born in Riviere Qui Barre and the late Father Alfred McIntyre of St. Emmerance Parish in R.Q.B. was his first spiritual adviser, who prepared him for his first Communion and Confirmation.

The eighth of a family of 13 children living on a farm, Father Frederick attended his first grade in Granger School with Mr. Heffernan Sr. as his first teacher. He attended Volmer School from Grade 2 to Grade 8 inclusive, then attended St. Albert High School. He entered the University of Alberta and graduated in 1961 with a B.S.C. in Electrical Engineering. He then entered the Oblate Novitiate in St. Norbert, Manitoba, and at the end of three years took his temporary vows.

In 1965 he returned to St. Albert where he took his final vows. He then went to Ottawa where he took courses in theology and philosophy. He will now return east to continue his studies.

His father died in 1960.

Among those present at his ordination were all 13 members of his family, and a great number of the 86 descendants of the late William Bokenfohr and the late Dena Hesse his grandparents.

In all there are over 250 Bokenfohrs in the district, and have chosen with very few exceptions, agriculture as their life's work. They have succeeded very well in all parts of this district, including St. Albert where the first pioneer Bokenfohr family established themselves at the turn of the century. Others have large farms in Morinville, Mearns Picardville, Volmer and Cardiff.

Bishop Bokenfohr will return to his missions in Kimberly, South Africa. Sister Mary Amable (Rose Marie) left for Guatemala, Porto Rico where she has volunteered for mission work. She is a sister to Father Bokenfohr.

Bill Baart, who opens his new Radio, TV and Record Bar in Grandin Shopper's Park this week, is seen with some of the records he has in stock in the background.

Bill's Opens In Grandin

Bill's Radio, TV and Record Centre opened on Aug. 16 in the Grandin Shopping Centre.

Bill Baart, well known to St. Albert residents from his store on Piron Street, is the store owner. He was trained in British Columbia as an electronic technician and is able to service any electric appliance in the home. He has special training to cover electric organs and color TV and also has the latest equipment to service color T.V.

The store has a bright attractive showroom. Early visitors to the store may wonder at the lack of merchandise in the showroom. It is almost time for the new 1968 TV, stereos and so on to be on the market and Mr. Baart does not want to fill his showroom with the 1967 models and so he is waiting for the new models to come out.

Records will be the shop's speciality and they will be from every label. There will be 2,000 in stock and include modern, western and classical. For variety the front row of the record bar contains "A Mighty Fortress" by the Mormon Tabernacle choir, Louis Armstrong's Greatest Hits and the original music from El Dorado. Mr. Baart will order any record for his customers, if they are available in the city has has a 24 hour service. Miss Jackie Quinn is clerk in the record bar.

The store will sell a variety of radios, TV's and Stereos. Someday Mr. Baart hopes to expand to major appliances and furniture in a larger store in Grandin Shopping Centre. "Now this is only a dream," he says.

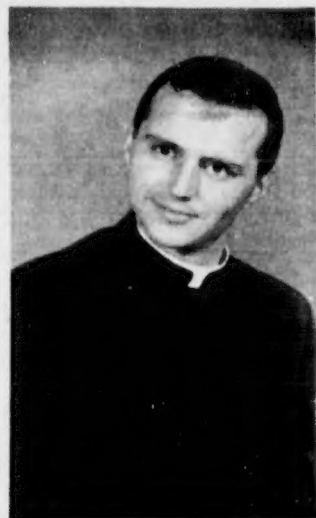

Mr. Baart was born, educated and married in Holland, he has three children and makes his home in St. Albert.

The Honorable J. Donovan Ross, Minister of Health, cuts the ribbon and declared the new $2 million dollar residence and nursing school of the Edmonton General Hospital officially open. The new building, modern in every way, replaces the old brick building on 100th Avenue between 111 and 112 Streets. This is only the beginning of an expansion program by the General Hospital that, when completed in 1969, will run to seven and a half million dollars. The opening ceremony took place on Aug. 11.

Grey Nuns Open Regional Center

Sisters of Charity Labors of 100 Years Materialize in Home

When the Grey Nuns Regional Centre in Jasper Place was officially opened Aug 5 it was the realization of the fruits of labor of the Sisters of Charity for over 100 years in this part of Alberta.

Three Sisters well known in St. Albert will make this centre their home, Sister Margaret Comea, Sister Margaret Mary Cote and Sister Juliette Gauthier.

Ultra modern in every way the new centre will serve as a home for the Grey Nuns' Province of St. Albert. The chapel is the centre of the whole complex and around it are living quarters, a library, museum, seminar rooms, offices, a swimming pool and gymnasium and at one end is a complete Retreat Centre.

In the Retreat section there are private rooms for those attending the Retreat, complete living quarters for the retreat master and his assistants, a beautiful little chapel with stained glass windows that seats 72 persons. Those in retreat have a cafeteria of their own and have access from their own side to the swimming pool, gymnasium, library and seminar rooms. Unless they wish they never have to enter the main part of the Centre.

The chapel is of simple design with fascinating grained wood and a new concept in stained glass. The lower windows are in shades of brown and beige to harmonize with the wood. Upper windows have more color but all in the same sectional design. Pews are small, made to seat only three or four. The balcony leads off from the infirmary and is made to accommodate wheel chairs. There is also room for wheelchairs on the main floor.

Elevators are all strategically placed in the complex. One goes to the infirmary, this section is specially to house the elderly sisters of the order who range in age from 75 to 91 years. This is equipped as a hospital with P.A. system, physiotherapy, doctor's office and private rooms with hospital beds and other conveniences for those who are ill.

All rooms and offices are furnished with the most modern furniture in gay colors with matching pictures, the emphasis is on wood through-out and the combined effect is most attractive.

The entire structure is built to encompass inner courts where sun bathing, reading or relaxation can take place in the open air in complete privacy. The courts vary in size the main one having three levels and is accessible from three levels.

The basement is as modern as the rest of the building and houses all the house-keeping facilities, modern kitchen, laundry and even a supply depot for basic essentials for the Sisters saving them time in having to go down town to buy such items.

donald are on the extreme left and right, both are well known in St. Albert, Father Lafrance being the parish priest here.

Rev. Mother G. Jabeau is seen cutting the ribbon at the official opening of the Grey Nuns Regional Centre in Jasper Place. Rev. Mother Yvonne Prevost looks proudly on. This will be her permanent home after having being moved from St. Albert Youville Home to an Edmonton apartment block, when Youville Home came under government jurisdiction.

The statue representing Blessed Margaret d'Youville at the front of the Grey Nuns Regional Centre is unveiled by Rev. Mother M. B. Dorais, treasurer general of the Grey Nuns of Montreal. She is assisted by Sister Anne Trotter, provincial assistant of the Grey Nuns at the Regional Centre in Edmonton.

A Tribute

Excerpts from a speech by J. Horan M.L.A. made at the official opening of the Grey Nuns Regional Centre.

"This magnificent building will forever remain a monument to the energy, enterprise, sacrifices, perseverance and faith of Canada's favorite daughters who have contributed so unselfishly, so much to so many, regardless of class, colour, creed or means.

"It was early in September, 1859 . . . 108 years ago when three very young ladies arrived at the Mission of Lac Ste. Anne, from St. Boniface taking 51 days to complete the trip. Sister Zoe Leblanc-Emery, 32 years old, was the Superior and a trained nurse, Sister Adele Lamy was aged 23, and Sister Marie Jacques-Alphonse, 33 years old, was a qualified teacher.

"Within two weeks of their arrival at Lac Ste. Anne, the Nuns opened their first school and their students numbered between 30 and 40 . . . Two years later they added seven orphans. Thus the first school and the first orphanage west of Fort Garry was established in Alberta.

"In 1863, four years later before Confederation, the Grey Nuns re-located at St. Albert. They took the seven orphans with them and gave refuge and medicare to a sick old man. Thus was born the first hospital in the Northwest of the Red River.

"We have a glorious history, but it is also a gruesome reminder of what these Grey Nuns had to face . . . Starvation was not uncommon and there are many stories of poverty and hunger and even wars.

"Small pox struck the north west, a few nuns were called upon to nurse and administer to the sick and dying. Five of the seven orphans died as did 300 of the 700 Metis who had come to St. Albert for help, 300 white hunters on the Prairies and no less than 3,000 Indians.

"A Grey Nun is a God Fearing Devout Saint, she is a teacher, a nurse, a doctor, a midwife, a lawyer, Judge, undertaker, dentist, trapper, hunter, gardener, fisherwoman, herbalist, carpenter, a friend to all and a Godmother to the Nation, God Bless them all. They have contributed much to this land".

Grey Nuns

Love was the inspiration to a woman, a mother, a widow, a dedicated religious who brought into existence the Sisters of Charity, more familiarly known from the very beginning as Grey Nuns. Blessed Marguerite d'Youville (nee de la Jemmerais), was that woman, the mother, the widow, who heeded the call of Love to dedicate herself to the service of her brethren, especially those in need, thus forming a new group of women who would follow in her footsteps. This work was initiated in 1738, in Montreal, Province of Quebec.

Since then, the Grey Nuns of Montreal have expanded their service throughout Canada, pioneering westward into Manitoba, 1844; Albert, 1859; and Saskatchewan, 1860. Presently their activities extend east and west, north and south, and embrace Indian, African and South American missions.

Lion Jorge Bird, San Juan, Puerto Rico, President of Lions International 1967-68.

Pres. visits Lions

On August 8, 1967 a distinguished Lion, Jorge Bird President of Lions International visited Edmonton and was hosted by the Lions Clubs of District 37B and District 37F.

Among about 200 Lions meeting Mr. Bird at the International Airport was St. Albert Lion's secretary, Bob Logan. About a dozen of the St. Albert Lion members attended a barbecue held in his honor by the Edmonton Lions Club on Aug. 8. Some of the Morinville ladies had the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Bird at a coffee party held for her in Edmonton.

President Bird is now making a tour of the Lions Clubs of Canada and the border States of the U.S.A. He is accompanied by his charming wife Victoria.

President Bird is a Puerto Rican from the city of San Juan, Puerto Rico, is the head of a chain of restaurants both in Puerto Rico and the U.S.A. and has held every office in Lions International. He was directly responsible for the establishment of Lionism in Spain, this feat is unique because Lionism is the first and only service organization in Spain that is not government sponsored.

President Bird outlined the Lions program for the balance of the golden anniversary year, which is "peace through better understanding," this will start immediately by sending teams of outstanding Lions to South America to learn about their problems and to tell them of ours and some of the solutions that we have found.

Also a board study of urban renewal, believing that better living conditions and better surrounding will alleviate the racial tensions that many countries are now being subjected to.

President Bird visited the many Lion projects in Edmonton and commented that these were among the finest he had seen so far in his travel. President Bird will also drive a golden spike to officially open the miniature railroad and the Lions Park in Edson on his way for a short rest in Jasper.

Newspaper

BEST

The newspaper is the most popular choice as the best medium for finding out about advertised items. According to a survey disclosed at the recent International Marketing Congress in Toronto, and reported in Marketing, the local newspaper was chosen for six out of the 10 of the 120 items (58%) named in the survey. Television came next, leading in 32% of the items, and radio in 1%, or about the same as word of mouth. The people most interested in a product turned consistently to printed advertising for information about it because of "the more detailed information in print ads and the fact that print can be examined at the convenience of the consumer."

the Gazette REFLECTS Alcohol and Gasoline Do Not Mix

By Hon. Gordon Taylor
Minister of Highways

It happened in the corridor of a hospital. "Oh, God, let it be me, not that little boy!" The man wept copiously, wringing his hands and crying over and over again, "God, let it be me!" "God, let it be me!"

The tears left me cold

It all started on a bright Saturday afternoon when a twelve-year old boy took his little sister downtown. At a marked intersection the little boy cautiously waited for the red light to turn green and then indicated to his sister that they could cross the street. Suddenly a car screened from nowhere and threw the youngsters into the air. The little girl was dead when the policeman picked her up, and the little boy was rushed to a hospital . . .

"It will be a miracle if the boy ever walks again . . ." the doctor said.

Yes, the tears left me cold. The man could cry enough tears to fill an ocean but it would not now put life back into the body of that little girl or strength into the legs of her brother. A little straight thinking on the part of a man who thought it was smart to drink and drive, prior to the accident, could have saved a human life and a crippling.

The Highway Traffic Act endeavours to make people realize that they should not drive if they are drinking or going to drink alcoholic beverages. The six months' suspension of the operator's license for a first offence under the Criminal Code of Canada for driving while impaired is continued in the new act. Now, however, the Court in its discretion, may, for a first offender, permit a restricted license to be issued to the suspended driver for the purpose of making a living. A second offence for impaired driving within a five-year period will continue to carry a mandatory suspension of at least twelve months. A new provision carries a three-year suspension for a third conviction within a five-year period. There is no authority whatsoever given to the Court or to the Minister of Highways to reduce suspensions for second or third offences.

Impaired and intoxicated driving are Criminal Code offences and the Court may, under the provisions of the Code, prohibit a person convicted of such offences from driving anywhere in Canada for a period up to three years or order imprisonment or both. The provisions in the Highway Traffic Act come into play only after a person is convicted for these offences under the Code.

Tough laws and tough enforcement and tough courts can certainly be potent deterrents but the real answer lies in everyone deciding to not drink while driving before he hears a doctor say

"The boy . . . who obeyed all the laws . . . who had a whole life ahead of him . . . will never walk again!"

"Laws too gentle are seldom obeyed; to severe, seldom executed." . . . Franklin.

Educational costs in St. Albert — The Board of St. Albert School District No. 3 appreciates Council's concern with the rising tax rate in St. Albert. We are particularly alarmed with the spiralling cost of education since our total budget has almost tripled in the last five years. This phenomenal increase has certainly affected the total tax for education in St. Albert but the levy is still surprisingly close to that in Edmonton. The appended graphs show the change in mill rate over the period 1962 to 1967. These show that the tax due to the Foundation Program Fund dropped to 20,784 mills in 1963 but has risen gradually since that year. The supplementary requisition which is controlled by local school authorities averaged 8.3 mills over the five years. It has been within 1.5 mills of the average every year except for the substantial drop in 1966. Over the last three years the total tax rate for the town has risen 18 mills while the portion for education rose 5.6. We believe that school trustees in St. Albert have held the tax for education in line with other jurisdictions. The levy in St. Albert was 2,077 mills less than in Edmonton in 1966 but will be 1,736 higher than in the city in 1967.

Dave R. Fraser, Chairman, St. Albert School District No. 3.

Garbage Charges

Council of the Town of St. Albert met last week with the two school boards.

Following this meeting Councillor Bakker's motion to rescind the monthly 55¢ garbage charge was tabled until the Sept. 25 meeting.

Mr. Bakker felt the charge was too high as it was based on the cost of employing two men to carry the garbage cans while in fact only one man does the job. Mr. Bakker said that in view of the increase in taxes and because the garbage device now provided is not the same as before the fee was instituted the town should provide some services at no additional charge.

Councillor Wheatley said he would support the motion.

The 55¢ charge brings in about $1,500 revenue on each water billing.

COMMENTS

by Robert Russell.
The Conservative Thinker's Conference in Quebec has resulted in a basic departure in traditional Conservative political philosophy and a complete break away from the Diefenbaker attitude toward French Canada.

The key speakers on constitutional affairs advocated the recognition of the special status of French Canadians.

The French Canadians who attended the conference advocated the "Two Nations" principle while English Canadians talked about the preservation of French culture and language and the need for constitutional reforms to guard this status. These proposals were supported by men such as Premier Robarts of Ontario.

If this attitude prevails at the Conservative convention in September and if the Conservatives are successful in electing a successor to Mr. Diefenbaker, then they have a good opportunity of forming the next government of Canada. The Tories have been unable in the past to gain long lasting support in Quebec because of a traditional reluctance to recognize the separate entity of six million people.

This attitude should also move the public closer to a true two party system in this country provided, of course, that the Liberals can decide just where they stand.

102 YEAR OLD QUEEN

The fifth annual old timers' barbecue and golf tournament was held last weekend at the Turner Valley Golf and Country Club.

Feature attraction of the event, which draws 700 people each year, was the crowning of 102-year-old Mrs. Caroline Finley as queen of the old timers.

She was crowned by another pioneer — Billy Henry who recently celebrated his 100th birthday in High River at a special civic holiday honouring him.

"LOOK HENDERSON - I DON'T CARE WHAT YOUR NEW MILL RATE IS OR ABOUT YOUR BLOOMING COVERED SPORTS ARENA ! THIS JUST ISN'T THE COMPANY IMAGE!"

Against Arena

A St. Albert resident is to take court action against Town Council over covered Arena.

Mr. Robert Russell of 37 Glenmore Crescent has started an action to force the Town Council to place the controversial covered arena proposal before the electors at this fall's civic elections.

In a letter to Council, Mr. Russell's solicitor advised council that he would apply to the courts for two orders. The first would prohibit the council from making further expenditure or incurring further liability for the cost of the rink until the By-law has been passed in accordance with section 298 (c) of the Town and Village Act.

A second order would direct the Town to submit By-law No. 14/67 to the proprietary electors.

In a statement to the Gazette, Mr. Russell said "the issue here is the fundamental right of the electorate to have the opportunity to vote for the expenditures incurred on their behalf." "The only time the arena matter was submitted separately to the electorate it was defeated and since that time, the Mayor has made two attempts to manipulate this expenditure through without giving the electorate a chance to vote on the matter."

Mr. Russell said that he hoped that the Town could proceed with a covered arena during the next five years but emphasized that he would only support it if it included an ice plant. He also said that "such a proposal must of course, be submitted to the ratepayers on a separate By-law if the ratepayers are to have an honest opportunity of choice."

A slow down in public expenditures over the next year or two is advocated by Mr. Russell. "Two years ago we bought the curling rink, this year a swimming pool. It's time we took stock and put this town on a pay as we go system."

A Chance for a Sheep

Some lucky Alberta Hunters are going to have a chance to bag, or at least try to bag a sheep this fall.

The Provincial Fish and Wildlife Division are going to issue a limited amount of non-trophy sheep licences to be selected at random from all properly completed applications received from Alberta residents.

Applicants must have a 1967 Wildlife certificate, each applicant is only allowed one application. They should indicate where they wish to hunt. Forms are available only at provincial

Fish and Wildlife Offices.

The season will be open from Sept. 1 to Oct. 31.

Rental Rampage

The rental rampage could change the pattern of retailing in North America during the next 30 years, according to C. Taylor, Assistant Professor of Marketing at the Portland State College in Oregon.

A number of crystal ball gazers predict that by the end of the century consumers will be only interested in using, not in owning things.

By decreasing the Police, Fire and Street Lighting Protection a saving may be realized here but it would be insignificant in comparison to the drop in service.

The $40,000 contribution to the General Capital Fund amounts to 2-1/2 MILLS and is proposed to cover the final cost of the new arena. Council originally attempted to put this on Debenture however the by-law was petitioned which was meant to force the by-law to a vote. Council then decided to drop the by-law and raise the funds through taxation which we are permitted to do. Had the by-law been allowed to proceed without a petition the millrate this year would likely be 70-1/2 instead of the proposed 73. This was councils hope and intention—however it has been thwarted by the petitioners. The $50,000, debenture would have been repayable over a period of 25 years at $3,911. per year. By raising the funds in one year through the General Revenue account we are SAVING the ratepayers of St. Albert $47,783. Interest. The total repayable on a $50,000, debenture over 25 years is $97,783.00.

The petitioners against the Arena Completion By-law represented by Robert Russell are now threatening legal action against the town to prevent us from proceeding with the arena in any manner. I have never been shy about advising the residents of St. Albert what my intended recommendations to council will be—and I won't be in this case.

Should our legal advice be incorrect and the petitioners request to the courts forcing a vote be granted the mill rate WILL NOT change. The $40,000, will then be transferred to a General Revenue Surplus Account.

It WAS NOT Councils desire to raise these funds in one year—we have however been left with no alternate. I would be most pleased to see a vote on any money issue WHERE THE VOTE IS FAIR. It is to me however entirely unfair where a 2/3 majority is necessary for approval which means each

No vote is the equivalent of two Yes votes, and the petitioners and their representation are well aware of this fact. If council is in agreement, I am prepared to see a Simple Plebiscite go before the people re their opinion of using the Surplus Funds. (If this is how the budget is finally approved by the Local Authorities Board). In this case a simple majority would be sufficient indication to proceed.

I consider it unfortunate that a certain amount of your tax dollar will now be used to pay our solicitors to defend the town before a judge on any attempted injunctions by Robert Russell on behalf of the petitioners.

Funeral rites

MRS. M. A. FRADETTE

On Aug. 10, Mrs. Marie Anne Fradette, formerly of Picardville, Alberta, passed away at the age of 85 years. She was predeceased by her husband Laurant, in 1951. She is survived by four daughters "Mrs. P. (Alma) Folsy of St. Paul, Mrs. R. (Alphonsine) Lambert of Spirit River, Mrs. R. (Mary) Potvin of Picardville, Mrs. F. (Aline) Cote of Mariville, Quebec; four sons: George of Ggant's Pass, Oregon, John of Westlock, Frank of New Westminster, B.C., Ernest of Edmonton and twenty seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Picardville Roman Catholic Church, Aug. 14. Prayer services, Aug. 13 at Westlock Funeral Home.

Interment took place in Picardville Cemetery.

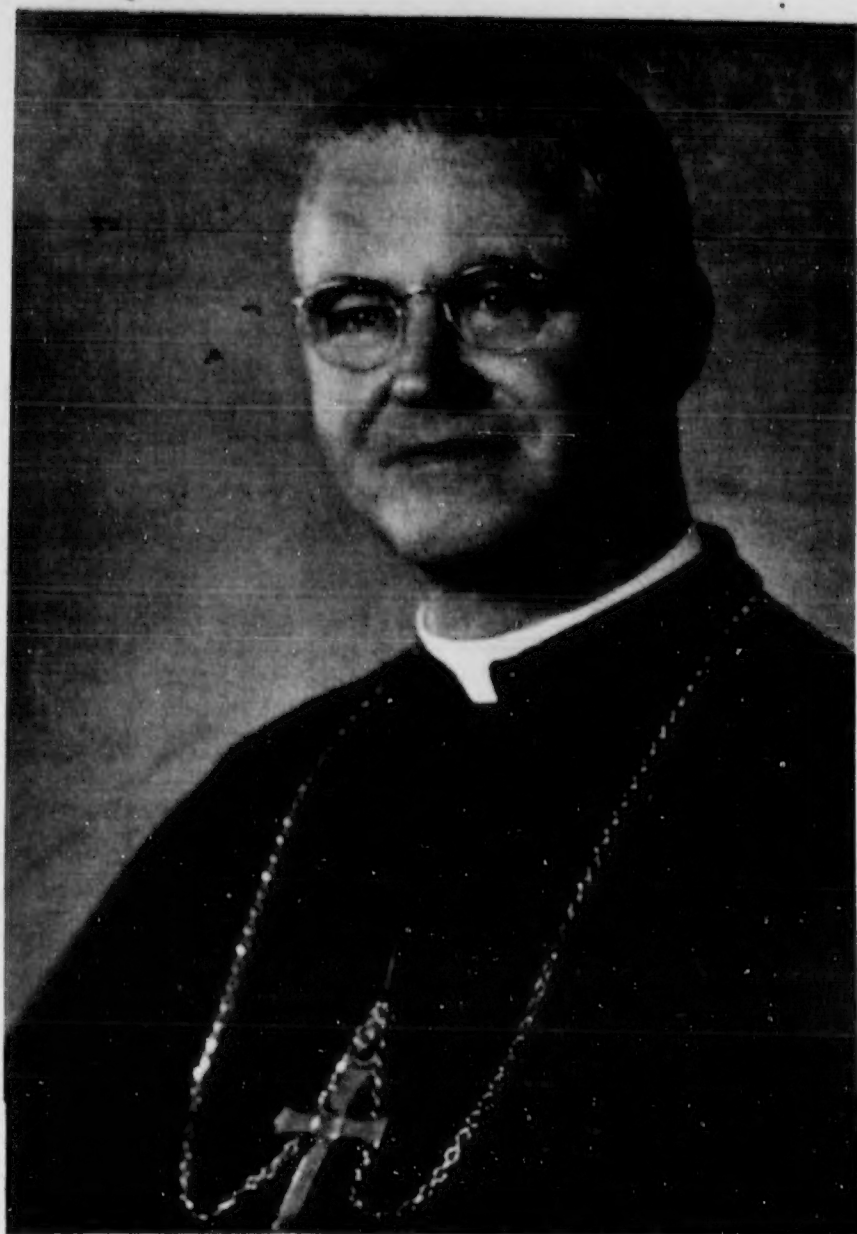

First High Mass

Having received ordination a week earlier from the hands of his uncle Bishop John Bokenfohr of Kimberly, South Africa, Rev. Frederick Bokenfohr celebrated his first high mass on Aug. 13 in the St. Albert Parish Church, assisted by Rev. Father Poirier OMI, Bishop Bokenfohr delivered the homily.

In his sermon entitled "Dear Father Frederick You Are a Priest Forever" Bishop Bokenfohr said: "When you were ordained you were given an invisible mark that makes you a priest forever." All of your life and for eternity you will be a living Christ in our midst. The church is the living body of Jesus Christ. This is an immense mystery. It is also true of the priesthood. Over 1900 years ago it has continued its mission, and all through the centuries and until the end of time, not as a prisoner in the tabernacle, but to continue through His years on earth, as He did on earth, to teach, to console, to visit and to live among all men. "It is through His church and His priests that the reality of His church goes on through the centuries."

"He is not only the messenger, not only the heart and hands of Christ, but he is a living Christ by being a priest through the ends of his living days."

Bishop John Bokenfohr, OMI of Kimberly, South Africa, who ordained his nephew, Father Frederick Bokenfohr of St. Albert on Aug. 7.

Bishop Bokenfohr is the son of the late William Bokenfohr and Mrs. Bokenfohr who came to St. Albert at the turn of the century.

Rev. Father Frederick who was ordained to the William Bokenfohr, OMI of St. Albert, son of the late William Bokenfohr and Mrs. Olga Bokenfohr of St. Albert, who was ordained to the Priesthood on Aug. 7 by his uncle, Bishop John Bokenfohr, OMI of Kimberly, South Africa.

The happiest moment in Mrs Olga Bokenfohr's day was when her son, Rev. Father Frederick came and gave her his First Blessing immediately after his ordination Mass.

Bishop John Bokenfohr, OMI, of Kimberly, South Africa is at the pulpit delivering an inspiring homily last Sunday. "Dear Father Frederick, You Are A Priest Forever."

Rev. Father Frederick Bokenfohr, O.M.I. shown above during the Consecration of his first High Mass celebrated in St. Albert, Aug. 13.

The procession leaving the altar after the first High Mass, Aug. 13. Shown are Bishop J. Bokenfohr, O.M.I., the altar boys followed by Rev. Father Fred Bokenfohr and Rev. Father Poirier.

Dena Bokenfohr-Rev. Sister Marie Frederick, Sister of Providence, who is training in Montreal hospital as a nurse. She was present at the ordination of her brother Frederick last week. She will soon return to Montreal to continue her training.

Rev. Sister Mary Almable (Rose Marie Bokenfohr) also a Sister of Providence who left for Guatemala last week end where she will learn Spanish before going to her Mission in Puerto Rico, where she volunteered to work.

"Today," continued the Bishop, "Catholics cannot afford to be church bench sitters, they cannot afford to be listeners. If every Catholic were active rather than give lip service to his church, we would have peace and understanding in this world."

In his concluding words the Bishop said "we are not fulfilling our obligations as Catholics. You Catholics are sometimes weak. There is a person in our midst who is a living Christ, your priest. You, Father Frederick are a priest forever".

He drew to the attention of council that the power line which was moved east of Gibbons is owned by the Bon-Accord - Gibbons Rural Electrification Association and not the Calgary Power. Mr. Austin suggested that when power lines are being moved council should contact the Rural Electrification Association.

Associations concerned:

Beaupre Cloutier

On August 5th, in a pretty mid afternoon double ring ceremony, Miss Germaine Beaupre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ephrem Beaupre of Morinville, and Mr. Richard Cloutier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cloutier of Legal, exchanged marriage vows before Rev. Father Armand Beaupre, before a candle lit altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a classic white taffeta and lace gown, featuring a fitted waist, sweetheart neckline and lily-point sleeves. The skirt had five rows of lace flounces, in a bouffant floor length style. Her veil was a cascade of misty tulle worn shoulder length and held in place by a crown of brilliants. She carried a sheaf of red roses with satin streamers.

Both bridesmaids, Miss Cecile Beaupre, sister of the bride, and Miss Marie Cloutier sister of the groom chose identical pale blue crepe gowns in a 'A' Line style, fashioned with white lace bodices and featuring bell sleeves trimmed with white lace. Each wore sleeveless capes of pale blue over their gowns with elbow length white gloves. Crowns of brilliants were worn as head pieces and they carried a miniature bouquet of yellow baby mums.

The groom was attended by Mr. Norman Charrois of Legal as best man and Mr. Dale Richard of Lamour-eaux. Mrs. Leon Riopel was the organist and solists were Miss Ed. Weisgerber and Miss Lea Riopel.

To receive her guests Mrs. Beaupre chose a jade green ensemble and white accessories with yellow roses worn en corsage. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Cloutier wore a 2 piece dress in champagne beige with white accessories and a corsage of red roses complimented her ensemble.

Some 155 guests assembled at the Morinville Recreation Centre for a reception and banquet. Mr. Lionel Roy of St. Albert was the M.C. and Rev. Father A. Beaupre proposed the toast to the bride. A wedding dance followed in the evening.

For her honeymoon trip to Vancouver, the bride chose a Centennial pink silk suit and white accessories. The happy couple will reside in Legal.

Two Great Premiers

Alberta Conservatives were kept busy last week as two of their members seeking the Party leadership visited the province.

Both provincial premiers, Duff Roblin, Manitoba and Robert Stanfield, Nova Scotia, arrived in Edmonton one day apart to woo the votes of the delegates who will attend the leadership convention in September.

Mr. Roblin arrived first, he stated he was in favor of a two party system but felt the country divided into five areas, was much too involved for the solutions Premier E. C. Manning was advocating in his book.

The difficulty for western people to understand what French speaking Canada is doing and vice-versa was emphasized by Mr. Roblin who speaks French himself. The start in this area is to understand each other's problems, he said.

In favor of certain welfare moves and having keen desire to zero in on poverty Mr. Roblin felt the drain on the tax structure should be watched keenly when bringing in new welfare legislation.

Mr. Roblin has been premier of Manitoba for 10 years and, win or lose at the convention, he is leaving provincial politics.

Mr. Stanfield creates an air of confidence in his audience which grows as he speaks. He felt the four parties to choose from at election time was good and also liked the name Progressive Conservative for he said "we are not just conservative, I like to feel we are progressive also."

A combination of Centennial spirit wearing off on him and an attitude of "speak now or ever after hold your peace" are the main reasons for Mr. Stanfield being in the leadership race. He will not withdraw even if John Diefenbaker does run. He says he thinks J. Drapreau, Mayor of Montreal has far too important a position where he is to join the candidates for the P.C. leadership. "He is respected and needed where he is," Mr. Stanfield said.

"I know about Alberta oil leases, wheat and beef, but I want it made clear I do not have all the answers," Mr. Stanfield went on to say. He says he will learn the French language if he receives the leadership of the party.

About foreign policy the Nova Scotia Premier said he felt Canada must be prepared to play a part in self defence and must not expect others to do it for her. "Canada is limited in strength but her influence is great and she should play a part in seeking settlement of disputes," he said.

The need for foreign investment was stressed by Mr. Stanfield who did not feel answers could be found by barring investment here, he felt rather a positive attitude should be taken to get Canadians to venture investments in their own country's enterprises. Governments do not do well in competitive enterprise, there are better ways than equity investments in risky companies such as providing mortgage money," he said.

At the Convention Sept. 6-9 there will be 2,343 voting delegates with a total expected attendance of about 5,000 persons. One hundred and seventy voting delegates will be in attendance with the province's own Peter Lougheed as one of the key-note speakers. Delegates will have the grave responsibility of choosing a leader of their party from at least nine candidates, there may be more as the closing of entry into the race is not until convention time.

Meat Eaters

Canadian are eating more meat. Last year, per capita consumption of meat in Canada advanced to a new level of 188.4 lb.

The continued rise in personal income is the major factor in boosting consumption reports Neil MacVicar, assistant business news editor of Maclean-Hunter in Ottawa.

Quoting government officials, MacVicar writes that the new level represents an increase of 11 lb. over four years since 1963 and 20 lb. more than in the 1956-60 period. This change is almost entirely due to beef and poultry meat.

Between the average of the years 1956-60 and 1966, per capita consumption of beef rose by 13 lb., or nearly 20%. Poultry meat increased by 12 lb., or nearly 50%. Pork consumption declined by almost 3 lb., and other meats had slight changes.

Fashion News

More women are knitting than ever before in Canada's history. And they're enjoying it more, too, with the swinging new fashion patterns coming onto the market each season -- in the wool shops, you can pick up marvellous patterns for smart new knitted mini-coats which can also be used as long-long sweaters; there are Mary Quant designs for mini-dresses, you'll find black-and-white "op art" stripes in bulky-sweater designs, and a host of other up-to-the-minute fashion designs never seen before in hand-knit patterns.

The colour story in knitting yarns is swinging fashion news too ... yarns of all weights and textures sizzle with uninhibited zest. Greatest news on the colour scene -- this year's top colours are the "Canyon Colours" -- sunbaked and glowing -- from Orange to Copper-Gold, Curry Heather, Brick Heather and all the brown influenced tawny burnt orange tones. Gem greens, and the true greens Emerald and Jade Green, are chosen for high fashion news.

In the photograph, the swinging new Hand-Knit Poncho makes headlines, in pure Orange, combined with Paddy Green. Under the Poncho, V-Neck pullover is Paddy Green, with separate turtle-neck dickey. Knit the Poncho in no time -- for a football game, a walk in the woods with the dog, a weekend trip anywhere, in Mary Maxim's fabulous Northland Pure Virginwool, it's right in fashion as well as wind and weather resistant.
